Jenna Gribbon
Biografia

Jenna Gribbon è nata a Knoxville, nel Tennessee, nel 1978. Attualmente vive e lavora a Brooklyn, New York, Stati Uniti.

I dipinti di Gribbon esplorano i sentimenti e le implicazioni del guardare e dell'essere guardati. I suoi lavori ritraggono amici intimi, la moglie, familiari e colleghi pittori ed incoraggiano lo spettatore a riflettere sul proprio ruolo di consumatore di bellezza e intimità e voyeur delle narrazioni altrui.

Lo sguardo di Gribbon permea ogni livello del suo lavoro, con titoli come "Ritualized Looking", "Deck Peek" e "When I look at you, the light reflective". Le scene sono dipinte secondo la prospettiva di Gribbon, facendo emergere la presenza dell'artista enfatizzando il suo particolare punto di vista. Lo spettatore prende il posto dell'artista, guardando i soggetti dipinti da Gribbon dalla posizione esatta che occupava lei nella scena. Non solo lo spettatore guarda il soggetto, ma è anche invitato ad osservare l'esperienza di Gribbon stessa nel guardarlo.

Le opere di Jenna Gribbon sono presenti nelle collezioni del Brooklyn Museum di New York, del Museum of Fine Arts di Boston, MA, del Dallas Museum of Art di Dallas, del San Francisco Museum of Modern Art di San Francisco, CA, del Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art (MAMCO) di Ginevra, del Kunstmuseum Den Haag dell'Aia e della Collezione Maramotti di Reggio Emilia.
